Training & Development Associates Promotes Margaret McFaddin to Vice President of Community Development Technical Assistance

Laurinburg, NC, January 8, 2010 – Training & Development Associates, a national consulting firm, today announced the promotion of Margaret McFaddin to Vice President of Community Development Technical Assistance. In this role, Ms. McFaddin will oversee TDA's services that are funded by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development's (HUD) local community development technical assistance (CD-TA) grants.

"During her tenure providing technical assistance services in the field, Margaret has gained a clear understanding of the needs of TDA's consultants and of those it serves," said E. Wayne Freeman, President and Chief Executive Officer. "We are pleased that she will use her knowledge and skills to guide the company's CD-TA activities."

Ms. McFaddin joined TDA in 2006 as a Project Manager and was promoted to Senior Project Manager a year ago. She has over 30 years of experience in program design and management with state government, nonprofit organizations, and for-profit housing developers. Before joining TDA, she led regional and statewide coalitions in the development of Continuum of Care plans and successfully applied for HUD Supportive Housing Program funding. Her professional experience includes grant writing and grant management for nonprofits and program compliance with the Low Income Housing Tax Credit program, state housing trust fund program, and Federal Home Loan Bank's Affordable Housing Program. For over 12 years, she managed HUD Supportive Housing Program grants for transitional housing for homeless families, childcare for employed homeless parents, addiction recovery, and Homeless Management Information Systems. Margaret earned a Bachelor of Arts in psychology from Sweet Briar and a Juris Doctor from the University of South Carolina School of Law.
