Training & Development Associates Promotes Randall Mullen to Vice President of Special Projects

Laurinburg, NC, January 8, 2010 – Training & Development Associates, a national consulting firm, today announced the promotion of Randall Mullen to Vice President of Special Projects. In this role, Mr. Mullen will oversee TDA’s services funded by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development’s (HUD) national technical assistance grants and those funded by other entities (such as states and local governments).

“Randall has been a key part of TDA’s success and we are pleased to promote him to this important position,” said E. Wayne Freeman, President and Chief Executive Officer. “His strong management skills are well suited to ensuring timely and quality technical assistance services are provided.”

Mr. Mullen joined TDA in 2000 as a Senior Project Manager after having been one of TDA’s prime subcontractors. Randall has over 20 years of experience advising organizations on inner-city redevelopment. He provides a wide range of services covering community planning, housing development, economic development, public services and grant administration. He has delivered technical assistance for the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG), HOME Investment Partnerships, and Empowerment Zones/Enterprise Communities (EZ/EC) programs. Mr. Mullen gained his experience by directing top rated community development agencies across the country. Mr. Mullen earned an MPA in urban affairs from American University and a BA in political science from the University of Missouri.
