Dionne Roberts Joins Training & Development Associates

Laurinburg, NC, January 8, 2010 – Training & Development Associates, a national consulting firm, today announced that Dionne Roberts has joined the company as a Senior Project Manager. In this role, Ms. Roberts will coordinate and deliver training and technical assistance for communities related to the design and delivery of housing and community development programs. In addition, Ms. Roberts will oversee the coordination of homeless activities for the company.

“Dionne is a highly respected member of the national affordable housing field,” said E. Wayne Freeman, President and Chief Executive Officer, “her experience providing leadership, advocacy, and capacity development will be an asset to the communities we serve. We are fortunate that she has agreed to join our team.”

Prior to joining TDA, Ms. Roberts was one of TDA’s prime contractors. She has 15 years of experience as synthesizer and catalyst, with a history of developing and sustaining productive relationships and partnerships with communities, citizens, and stakeholders. Ms. Roberts is committed to developing and implementing integrated approaches to community and economic development needs that reflect the values, diversity, aspirations, and priorities of a community. She is adept at the development of policy approaches to enhance the provision of programs, and the identification of resources to facilitate direct development. Ms. Roberts has a Master’s of Science in Organization Development from American University, School of Public Affairs.
